

I am very concerned that allowing single ownership of both broadcast and print media will limit the diversity of the news in that market. It is imperative that we have divergent opinions regarding local, national and international news.